| Unit description                                      |                 | In this unit, students will make and respond to dance by exploring their personal dance style through the study of Musical Theatre learning and comparing the genres of Broadway Jazz and Cabaret in film to communicate a choreographic intent. Students will choreograph, perform, and analyse Musical Theatre dance in a film context. They will understand how the Dance Concepts including elements of dance, choreographic devices, form, and production elements together communicate meaning to an audience. Students will practice and refine technical skills to develop proficiency in Broadway Jazz and Cabaret techniques combined with associated expressive skills. |                                                                                          |     |                       | In this unit, students will make and respond to dance by exploring their personal dance style through the study of Contemporary Dance inspired by African and Australian ritual dance stories, symbolism, and culture to communicate a choreographic intent. Students will improvise to find new movement possibilities and explore personal style by manipulating elements of dance and structure dances works using movement motifs, choreographic devices, and form to communicate intent. They will practice, refine, and perform dances with technical skills to develop proficiency in genre and style-specific techniques. Students will evaluate their own choreography and analyse a range of dance works from contemporary and past times to explore differing viewpoints to enrich their future practice. |                                                                    |  |  |
